ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Announcements of candidates, to run for first election to date of election day, if nominated, will be charged for as follows: For State and judicial offices, $5.00; county and district offices, $2.50. Cash in advance.

We are authorized to announce the name of I. W. CHAMBERLAIN, of Winchester, as a candidate for the democratic nomination for attorney general, subject to the action of the democratic party.

We are authorized to announce T. L.
STEWART, of Jasper, as a candidate for Criminal Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce G.
W. CHAMBERLAIN, of Chattanooga, as candidate for Circuit Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce the name of A. R. RANKIN as a candidate for County Judge of Marion County,
party.

We are authorized to announce the name of C. A. QUARLES as a candidate for reelection to the office of register of Marion County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce the name of C. JOHNSON as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Marion County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce F. L.
MATTHEWS, as a candidate for Sheriff of Marion County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce the name of JAMES H. KELLY as a candidate for Sheriff of Marion County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The worst "hook worm" disease the south has is ignorance.—Sequachee News.

But it isn't exactly becoming in a loyal southern newspaper to parade the fact, do you think? Lots of good common sense in the south anyway, and when it comes to integrity and virtue, the hope of the nation is in this dear old southland.—South Pittsburg Hustler.

The Hustler has got the idea mixed.
"Common sense," "integrity" and "virtue" are not synonyms for "knowledge," which is the antonym for "ignorance." We are willing to admit that the Hustler has common sense, integrity and virtue, but must say that the above paragraph shows ignorance. Mr. Rockefeller's million might better have been spent for educational purposes.

C. Johnson Announces.

In our announcement column this week may be found that of C. Johnson for Sheriff of Marion County, subject to the action of the Republican party.
Mr. Johnson is a young man, 34 years old, and is from the ranks of labor, being engaged in handling logs near Cedar Springs. He is a Marion Countarian to the bone, having been born and raised in this county, and now lives on the ridge road about two miles from Jasper. He has a number of friends scattered over the county, who are anxious for him to make the race as they believe from his honest, steady qualities he would make a good sheriff. He expects to see all the people, and after that only desires it shall be left to a primary to decide whether he shall be the candidate or not. He proposes, if nominated and elected, to be strictly a people's officer, and so continue the office.

Jas. M. Kelly for Sheriff.

Jas. M. Kelly, of Battle Creek, announces for Sheriff of Marion County.
He is a native of Tennessee, all republicans, who have announced for the office in the News this week. We are not personally acquainted with Mr.
Kelly, but understand that he is a farmer, is about 35 years old, and has a family. He was born and raised in Tennessee, old county of Marion, but lived in the home of his father in his early youth. He is a native of the constitution of the good people of Marion, and if he gets the nomination, promise to faithfully and honestly do his duty.

Installed Stapling Machine.

The New Installed in its Job Department this week an up-to-date "Boston" Stapling Machine, or fire stapler for books and pamphlet binding. It is the only stapling machine that has been improved on from other stapling machines, and drives a fine wire staple through from top to bottom of paper in three-eighths of a second. It is the only other stapler that is capable of doing.

Why Does It Cure

Not because it is Sarsaparilla, but because it is a medicine of peculiar merit, composed of more than twenty different remedial agents effecting phenomenal cures of troubles of the blood, stomach, liver and bowels.

Thus Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, eczema, anemia, catarrh, nervousness, that tired feeling, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and builds up the system.
Get it today in the usual liquid form or in the chocolate tablet form called Sarsatals.

What the Hustler Says.

The County High School will probably be located at Jasper, which already has a plenty of schools, says the Sequachee News. Now if the County High School is located at Jasper without Jasper's making any bid or offering greater inducements than any other place in the county, then you are going to hear one of the biggest, "riproaringest" and most telling protests ever heard of from this end of the county. If Jasper gets the high school she must do something or put up something to deserve it or there will be trouble in the camp for some members of the honorable county court, and don't you forget it. South Pittsburg is mighty slow when it comes to political manipulations and lots of times the astute county ring pulls the wool all over the eyes of the unsophisticated Burgian, but in the instance of the county high school location, Jasper, to win out, must put up the cold collateral, the tangible stuff in due form and ready for use or else as above stated, there will be a warm dose for somebody, and you people of the upper end of the county are not worth your weight in sawdust if you do not help administer the medicine.—South Pittsburg Hustler.

Croup Cured and a Child's Life Saved.

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to that of the thousands who have been benefited by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My child, Andrew, when only three years old was taken with a severe attack of croup, and thanks to the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy his life was saved and today he is a robust and healthy boy," says Mrs. A. Coy, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas. This remedy has been in use for many years. Thousands of mothers keep it at hand, and it has never been known to fail. For Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

LAZARUS AND DIVES

Editor News:

I am not surprised to see so much space taken up on the parable of Dives and Lazarus. This is the main stronghold of the advocates of the false doctrine of eternal torment.
And it is a fact worth repeating, that outside of the parables and "dark sayings" of our Lord, they have no basis on which to perpetuate the great fraud, to slander the Almighty, and to nullify his oath and plan. Whoever would know the truth of this, let them search and see. The parable at issue, and the parable of the "sheep and goats", and the symbols of revelation which they say "nobody knows anything about", are all there are to support this most unreasonable dogma of the darker ages. (There is nothing in the epistles to support it. Paul, the great converted pharisee, who wrote much of the New Testament, said nothing about it, but he did say the wicked, including Satan, would be destroyed. Heb. 2:14. He speaks in 2 Cor. 1:9, of the sentence of death which we had in ourselves that we should not trust in ourselves, (as being immortal), but in God (who only bath immortality), and who raises the dead." So in all the epistles. John says, "Whoever hateth his brother is a murderer (at heart); and ye know that no murderer bath eternal life abiding in him." He cannot experience eternal torment nor eternal bliss.
However as previously intimated, I shall not devote much more space to the discussion of the subject at issue, but prefer to write of the good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people. But I wish to point out that there is no more in the parables to support the doctrine than there is in Saul's experience with the "witch at Endor" as recorded in 1 Sam. 28.

But none can appreciate the teaching of the parable under consideration unless they can see that Jesus' dealing was all with the Jews. He instructed his chosen ones to go not into the way of the gentiles. They were not permitted to go until the full end of Jewish special favor had come, and Peter took the "key" and opened to Cornelius, the first gentile convert.
This and the typical character of the entire Jewish economy should help us to see that this parable does not represent conditions of life beyond the tomb. That Jesus was representing the Jewish nation by the "rich man," is shown by the words, "they have Moses and the prophets." No other nation had these. The trouble in understanding the parable is that figures are taken literally. This is shown by my critic's use of the words "fared sumptuously." He thinks only of the natural man—for something good to eat and plenty to wear. The meaning of this is that the Jews "fared sumptuously" as God's chosen people to whom he gave his oracles, and finally sent his Son. Paul explains this, that the Jews had "much advantage every way, because unto them were committed the oracles of God" law and prophecy. The "purple and fine linen" does not represent "articles of official dress" as the natural man assumes, but it represents the imputed typical righteousness and the royal promises.
The promises to the patriarchs, notably, Abraham and David, invested the Jews with royalty as represented in the rich man's "purple". The typical sacrifices of the law constituted them typically a "holy nation" as represented by the rich man's "fine linen"— symbolic of righteousness. (Rev. 19:8).
Lazarus represented the outcasts of Israel, denominated "publicans and sinners", and the God fearing people of other nations then debarrd from the blessings conferred upon Jews only.
As the "fine linen" represented Israel's typical justification so Lazarus sorely represented immorality in this class "without God and without hope," because no sin offering had been made for their justification.
They had no share in the promises represented by the rich man's "purple".
See Eph. 2:11-12. As to how the classe of the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table of divine bounties, our Lord's favor to the Syro-Phoenician woman who was one of them explains.
See Math. 15:27. That the Lazarus class has been appealed to for a drop of water to cool the rich man's tongue, is intimated by the Jews recent appeal to the President of the United States to intercede for the former rich man, the Jews in Russia. Other features of the parable are rich with concordant suggestion, but I leave it for the present.

The woman consulted by Saul was a spirit medium such as now operate at "seances" and who pretend to talk to the dead, but who are simply the tools of the fallen angels who personate the dead. Spiritualism is one of Satan's old schemes to perpetuate his doctrine of natural immortality and eternal torment. It is one of the "strong delusions" being permitted to "try them that dwell upon the face of the earth." Blessed is he that overcometh instead of being overcome by these delusions.
2 Thess. 2:11; Rev. 3:9-12. The lesson of Saul's visit to the witch at Endor is easy to those who "try the spirits" to know their character. The familiar spirit obsessing the witch personating Samuel, and it told Saul nothing which he did not anticipate.
The kingdom had been taken from Saul's family, and having no communication with God, he sought the witch through fear of the Philistines in battle array at his door. He expected no mercy because he had been told that David would succeed him.
The demons who influenced the witch as a medium knew all about the strength of the Philistine army and Saul's weakness and alienation from God. The demons knew that Saul was panic stricken and had sought the aid of the witch medium because he was upset over the situation. The result of the battle was a foregone conclusion, and the death of the defeated king and his family in those days was the only logical result. Nevertheless the prediction of the demon that "tomorrow" Saul and his sons would be with Samuel failed because two of his sons escaped and lived for years afterward. And it is claimed by scholars that the battle was not fought for several days after Saul's visit to the witch.

It is absurd to suppose that Samuel would hold a conference with Saul, whose fate as king was already sealed.

About People You Know

E. B. Weisener left yesterday afternoon for Memphis where he has accepted a lucrative position as salesman with the Bry-Block Mercantile Co., one of the largest mercantile companies in the south. Mr. Weisener came to Tracy City about three years ago from South Pittsburg and during his stay here made a host of friends who wish him success in his new labors.—

The coat of paint being put on Pryor Bros. & Condra's store helps the appearance of things in that part of town no little. The place should be known as the Red Front.—Dunlap Tribune.

Miss Lee Byrd, who has been staying in Little Rock, Ark., for the past few months, is here visiting friends.
She expects to return to Little Rock later.

Mrs. L. W. Cordell, of Dunlap, was here Monday and underwent an operation on the ear which was performed by Dr. Shirley who has been eminently successful in surgery. Mrs. Cordell went through the operation quite well and returned to her home Tuesday much improved.—So. Pittsburg Hustler.

Dr. C. R. Crouch and sons planted, on their large farm three miles south of town, 75 bushels of Irish potatoes and have dug and put away 1450 bushels of fine potatoes. For this crop they would realize about $1000, this would be more than $150 per acre, with a small expense.—Jasper Statesman

Christopher, Ills.

Special to the News.
Working is the order of the day here.

G. W. Pickett, of Herrin, Ill., is working up here now and likes this place fine. He got to work two nights this week.

Sidney Ballard, of Du Quoin, Ill., was a visitor here Saturday.
Pete Carter called on John Arledge Sunday.

Harvey Turner went to Du Quoin, Ill., Saturday night and returned today, and said he saw J. R. Jordan's girl who says he wants to see him Thanksgiving day.

We were sorry to hear of the bad luck J. R. Jordan had at Whitwell.

The writer of Dunlap said they would give the scale of their work up there some time ago, and we heard they got 10c reduction and I guess the writer changed his mind.

We are proud that DuQuoin will have saloons once again. In April Christopher will get a vote on the saloon question and then I don't think the boys will have to go to Sessor and DuQuoin to get a drink. I voted dry two years ago this April, but never again will vote dry for there are four or five blind pigs here in the dining rooms of some good friends of mine, and if there were saloons here the poor man's wife and kids could go to sleep at night, but as it is they can't go to sleep until 11 or 12 o'clock at night and it has caused some poor man to go to jail.

I want to say to Mr. and Mrs. Jess Turner of West Frankfort, Ills., that we would be pleased to have you and your family come and spend Thanksgiving Day with us. I believe we can get a chicken that day.

I would like to have Johnnie Girdley, of Herrin, pay me a visit. I don't guess you know me, but if you have time to come up to this city just ask some one where "Old Black Joe lives." John Lenard says to tell Willie Wed-dle to come up and we will go down to see Uncle Jim again.

Old Black Joe.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.

There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catharrh Cure.

John W. Bryant.

WHITWELL, Tenn., Nov. 11.—John W. Bryant, one of the oldest and best known citizens of this section, died at his home near Tatesville Sunday afternoon, after a lingering illness. His remains were interred at the Pickett graveyard near Sequachee county line Tuesday afternoon, Dr. Walker delivering the funeral address at the grave. Mr. Bryant was an honored citizen and was highly respected. He was the owner of large orchards, and was often termed the "Apple King" of this section.

Worn Women

Women, worn and tired from overwork, need a tonic. That feeling of weakness or helplessness will not leave you of itself. You should take Wine of Cardui, that effectual remedy for the ailments and weaknesses of women. Thousands of women have tried Cardui and write enthusiastically of the great benefit it has been to them. Try it—don't experiment —use this reliable, oft-tried medicine.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Rena Hare, of Pierce, Fla., tried Cardui and afterward wrote: "I was a sufferer from all sorts of female trouble, had pain in my side and legs, could not sleep, had shortness of breath.
"I suffered for years, until my husband insisted on my trying Cardui. The first bottle gave me relief and now I am almost well." Try Cardui. "It will help you."
